

Manager - Investigations & VIP Protection Services

Manage and oversee all investigations and VIP protection services within South Africa and Africa
Manage, co-ordinate and oversee investigations within South Africa and Africa
Manage, co-ordinate and oversee VIP protection services within SA and Africa
Establish internal and external liaison and communication channels
Manage and oversee external investigations and assistance to SAPS and Insurance Companies
Manage the Crime Line
Manage relevant Service Providers, Partners and Contractors in respect of investigations and VIP protection services
Maintain proper recording of all investigations
Provide guidance to the Business in respect of risks and mitigating factors
Establish proactive measures to prevent and/or mitigate risks
Manage, co-ordinate and oversee Information Protection.

Education
Relevant degree or Diploma. Post graduate qualification in Forensic Investigation would be advantageous Member of Association of Certified Fraud Examiner (ACFE) having attained the ACFE qualification would be advantageous Registered with the Private Security Industry Regulatory Authority (PSIRA) Grade A CISSP qualification would be advantageous Matric
Work experience, Leadership experience
Experience in the South African Police Service, Protection, Crime Intelligence and Investigations 5 to 10 years. Forensic investigations experience 5 Years management experience in a corporate environment Experience in Safety/Close Protection Services Proven management and leadership skills managing teams Knowledge and travel experience into Africa will be beneficial
Additional skills: special skills / technical ability etc.
Report writing ability Efficient and accurate planning Proven administrative skills Ability to interpret crime statistics Good people management and leadership skills Ability to think analytical and must work methodically Proven ability to manage an forecast Budgets Be able to work in a team and on occasion must be able to work without constant supervision. Working knowledge and experience in cybercrime and IT related investigations would be advantageous PC literate for standard MS Office (Word, PowerPoint, Excel, Outlook)