

Cyber, Electronic and Technical Security Specialist:

Manage and oversee all Electronic and Technical Security at BMW Sites and Facilities in South Africa and Africa.

Demonstrate above average knowledge in managing, co-ordinating and addressing Cybercrime and Information Protection topics.

Ensure that Best Practice Security Technologies are implemented during designing phases and all installations comply with standards and principles.

Ensure that all breaches are investigated and applicable security measures are implemented to prevent re-occurrence thereof.

Able and licensed to fly Drones would be advantageous.

Manage relevant Service Providers.

Provide guidance and proactive measures to Business in respect of risks and mitigating factors.

Education
Relevant degree or Diploma. (Cyber Crime – Digital forensics and Asset Protection) Diploma or Certificate in Electronic and Technical Security Registered with the Private Security Industry Regulatory Authority (PSIRA) Grade A CCTV System design certificate CISSP qualification would be advantageous Matric
Work experience, Leadership experience
Experience in the South African Police Service, Cyber-crime unit 5 to 10 years. Digital Forensics Investigations experience 5 Years management experience in a corporate environment Experience and executable knowledge in Technical and Electronic Security systems Knowledgeable and licensed to fly Drones and experience thereof (2-5 years)
Additional skills: special skills / technical ability etc.
Report writing ability Efficient and accurate planning Proven administrative skills Good people management and leadership skills Ability to think analytical and must work methodically Proven ability to manage an forecast Budgets Be able to work in a team and on occasion must be able to work without constant supervision. Working knowledge and experience in cybercrime and IT related investigations would be advantageous PC literate for standard MS Office (Word, PowerPoint, Excel, Outlook) Ability to do forecasting and work with budgets.