

South Africa Chapter

JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Journalist of the Year Award is presented annually to a journalist whose determination, perseverance and commitment to the truth have contributed significantly to the fight against fraud. Nominees are chosen based upon their contributions in exposing specific acts of fraud and white-collar crime, and/or through helping to shine a spotlight on issues central to fraud and the worldwide effort to prevent and detect it.